MORTIMORE'S

Rheumatic Compound.

THIS truly celebrated remedial preparation, efficacious alike for each and every description of RHEUMATIC COMPLAINTS, is already too well known and esteemed throughout the United States, to require any lengthy notice of its paramount virtues. It ERADICATES this heretofore incurable and distressing disease from the system, and STANDS UNRIVALLED IN THE PHARMACY OF MEDICINE.

We do not propose to make unqualified statements, or to force a nostrum before the public, but simply to request those most interested—THE SUFFERERS THEMSELVES—to procure from the Agent in their vicinity, a circular, and not only read the testimony of those who have experienced its invaluable curative powers, but also to write to, or call upon, the convalescents, so that the statements may emanate from the Fountain-Head—a course which will satisfy the most incredulous, and only by which the reputation of the REMEDY is certain of being sustained. Write also to the proprietors, who will accord every information, and furnish names of undoubted character from every section of the Union, numbering among them some of the most eminent Physicians, Clergymen, Editors, and prominent citizens, rendering the reliability and efficacy of the remedy beyond the reach of doubt or distrust.

Mortimore's Rheumatic Compound, is a Vegetable Extract, an Internal Remedy, prepared expressly for this One Disease; and this it will cure in every form, either Inflammatory (Acute) or Chronic, no matter how long standing.

Sold by H. FESS, Jr., S. JOHNSON, Jr., and LAKE & HOPKINS, Milwaukee.

THE ABOVE HAVE ALSO FOR SALE,

THE GREAT ALTERATIVE,

MORTIMORE'S

BITTER CORDIAL AND BLOOD PURIFIER.

THIS invaluable remedy—for every description of Nervous Affections, and for diseases of the Liver and Kidneys—has obtained a popularity, whenever introduced, unprecedented in the history of any other medical preparation ever brought before the public.

Many of our most eminent Physicians have thoroughly tested its merits, and now prescribe it as the most effective Alterative and Blood Purifier ever known.

Neuralgia, Dyspepsia, Palpitation of the Heart, Night Sweats, and Affections of the Lungs, will readily yield to the influence of this unrivalled remedy. THE PRESIDENT'S ANCESTORS.—Joshua Coffin, the antiquarian, publishes in the Newburyport Herald a paragraph concerning the Pierce family. He brings up nothing against them; on the contrary they seem to have been highly respectable people; and for our part, we cannot approve of the feeling which would bring the names of a respectable father and grandfather before the public gaze, merely because one of their posterity has not turned out well. That is a pitiful spirit of partizanship which would blacken old Mr. Pierce's memory on account of the melancholy career and fate of his son.

REV. Mr. Hoffmann, in his sermon on "The System of Free Churches," says that the first enclosed pew that was ever known in a church, dates back only to the 17th century, half a century and more later than the Reformation in England. They were never extensively introduced until the time of the Puritan Rebellion, and then in opposition to the Bishops of the Church, by men who wished to conceal from the congregation that they refused to kneel during the prayers, or thought themselves too good to pray by the side of those who were poorer than themselves.

'Do you not find my eyes expressive of my feelings?' said a sentimental lover to the lady he desired to please.

'Oh, yes, I presume so,' said the lady, 'they make me think of a codfish dying with the tooth ache.' The sentimental vamosed.

Hon. John S. Wells, the defunct candidate for the Senatorship of New Hampshire, speaking of his recent failure, said Pierce, the President, had defeated him twice—once by his enmity, and once by his friendship.

JOHN A MESSINGER IS DEAD! He is gone to appear before a Tribunal, where Slave-Catching Judges, Commissioners, Attorneys and Marshals will find neither office, employment nor favor, for the Merciful One has exclusive jurisdiction there, and admits kidnappers only long enough to hear the sentence—"Depart! Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of my brethren of the human race, ye have done it unto me."

Mr. Messinger was attacked violently with the cholera, a little before 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and died at half past 4 o'clock this morning. His funeral will be attended at his mansion, on Fourth Street, above Chesnut, in the Second Ward, at 3 o'clock to-morrow afternoon.

Mr. Messinger was 46 years old, and had been a resident of this city since 1836. He belonged to the producing class, was active, industrious and energetic, was largely engaged in business, and honored the commandment, "In the sweat of thy face shalt thou eat bread. He was kind-hearted, and generous, and prompted by noble impulses, and never stopped to calculate the "loss or gain" to him, of a humane and generous action. The kind husband and father and the steadfast friend has left many loved ones to mourn his untimely death.

He was our brother in bonds, and all who love the Freedom of the Race, will drop the tear of affectionate sympathy over his grave, and enshrine his name in their memory.

BAIL.—We charge the News with wilful and deliberate falsehood, in its article, of this morning, on us and our bail. The Clerk of the U. S District Court did fix the amount of our bail at $2000, did refuse to accept Dr. Wunderly as bail, (admitting that he was good and sufficient) on the express ground that he had once surrendered us, and might surrender us again: Judge Miller refused to accept Dr. Wunderly as bail, if Marshal Ableman can be believed, for he went to see him for that purpose, while Doctor Wunderly and we remained in the Clerk's office, and returned unsuccessful; Commissioner Smith did not offer or consent to take Doctor Wunderly as bail, for Hortensius J. Paine asked him explicitly if he had consented to accept Dr. Wunderly as bail, and he declared positively that he never had. These are the facts, and Dr. Wunderly and H. J. Paine are the witnesses.

The Madison Journal (Whig) says that Densmore of the Kenosha Telegraph (Abolitionist) was the one who lead off in the hissing at the mention of the name of Henry Clay, during a speech some one was making at the recent bogus "Mass Convention."—Potosi Republican.

The above is entirely false, and is a characteristic specimen of the opposition press. We have never accused Densmore or any other individual of hissing at that Convention. The name of Henry Clay was not hissed at. There was hissing at the remark of one of the speakers, declaring that the Whig party had always been right on the subject of slavery. We were present all the time, and this was the only thing hissed at. If the Republican, or any other "Democratic" sheet, wishes to defend the action of the Whig Convention at Baltimore in 1852, it is welcome to the job. We have always insisted on being excused from undertaking it.—Madison Journal.

A friend hands us the following postscript of a letter from Connecticut:

"P. S. I had like to have forgotten an important part of my letter—to express my satisfaction, my joy, at the decision of the Supreme Court of Wisconsin, in declaring the Fugitive Slave Act unconstitutional. Would that we had a U. S. Supreme Court which would confirm the decision. Constituted as that is, I suppose such a decision cannot be hoped for with any reason. But every blow helps to kill the monster—Slavery.

"If you have any acquaintance with Mr. Booth, whose imprisonment has been the cause of the decision, I wish you would tender him the congratulations of a hater and contemner of the Fugitive Slave Act, in Connecticut.

D. W. P."

Booth, after he ascertained that the Supreme Court had refused to grant him a writ of Habeas Corpus, very readily gave the bail which the Federal officers were at first willing to accept.—Sheboygan Journal.

It seems that a portion of the Hunker press have resolved on a systematic course of lying in regard to us. The Federal officers at first refused to accept the very bail they at last offered to take. But what of that? The Journal, Argus, and that class of papers care not what falsehoods they publish about us.

There is no doubt but President Pierce will veto the River and Harbor bill. This is the way he is paying off the West for supporting him.

DEATH OF AN EDITOR.—Mr. John L. Boswell, one of the editors of the Hartford (Conn.) Courant, died in that city, of erysipelas, on Sunday last.

Gov. Brigham Young, of Mormondom, has concluded a treaty with the Utah Indians.

THE LAST OPINION OF JUSTICE SMITH.

THE STATE OF WISCONSIN—SUPREME COURT.

In the matter of the Petition of SHERMAN M BOOTH, for a writ of Habeas Corpus and for his discharge from imprisonment

Concurring, as I do, with my brethren in the denial of the prayer of the petitioner for a writ of Habeas Corpus, upon the application now presented, it may not be improper for me to place on file my reasons for such concurrence. Although different minds may arrive at the same conclusion from given premises, yet as their several steps of progress towards such result may not be precisely similar, I desire to state the principles on which I base my judgment in this case.

In my opinion upon the first application to me for a writ of Habeas Corpus, in reference to the award of such writ, I said:

There was no question pertaining to the subject matter of the application, nor connected with the parties, which approached in the slightest degree to a conflict of jurisdiction between the State and Federal Courts or the Judges thereof. The warrant, by virtue of which the petitioner was held, was not issued by a Federal Judge or Court, but by a Commissioner of the District Court of the United States. No exclusive or ultimate jurisdiction can be claimed for an officer of this kind. As one of the justices of the highest judicial tribunal of this State, which tribunal represents in that behalf the sovereignty of the State, I could not deny to any citizen or person entitled to the protection of the State, the proper process by which the validity of a warrant issued by such authority, could be examined. Nor can I admit that a Court Commissioner, holding his appointment at the will of the Court, responsible only to such Court, in fact irresponsible and unimpeachable, has the right or the power, or can have the right or the power, to issue any process by which a citizen of the State may be imprisoned, that may not be examined and its validity tested by the proper judicial authority of the State.

[The Judge adroitly stops his quotation right here, but we continue it to show that he applied the principle to the Federal Courts, as well as to Commissioners:

He says: "Indeed, we may go FARTHER, and say, that as every Citizen has a Right to call upon the state Authority for Protection, and as the Judicial Power is that only to which application can usually be made by the Citizen, IT IS THE DUTY of the Judicial Officer, when applied to, to see that NO CITIZEN IS IMPRISONED within the limits of the State, nor taken beyond its limits, except by proper, legal and CONSTITUTIONAL authority. It is not in the power of any body to divest the State Judiciary of such authority, nor can anybody but the People themselves, abandon the Judicial Officers of the State from the performance of their duty in this behalf."]

The distinction was here taken, at the very outset, between a warrant or process, issued by a Commissioner of the United States, and process issued from a Court of the United States. The judicial power of the former was denied altogether, and hence the interference of the State magistracy to protect the citizen could in no just manner involve, or lead to, a conflict between the State and Federal Courts. Sho'd the State judiciary yield up such authority, the citizen might be left to the mere caprice, or mercy of an irresponsible tribunal, unknown to, and unauthorized by the fundamental law which the people had adopted as the charter of their rights and liberties. The Commissioner had no power to examine or determine the validity of the law under which his warrant was issued, because he was not, nor could he be endowed with any judicial functions. Whatever acts he could perform, were at most, merely ministerial, and however repugnant to the Constitution the law might be, he had no authority but to yield implicitly to its requirements, if he attempted to act at all. Hence the necessity of holding his acts subjects to judicial cognizance and examination. When the prisoner was first brought up, on the writ of Habeas Corpus issued by me, he was for the first time brought within the cognizance of a judicial tribunal. Judgment was pronounced upon the hearing, and doubtless that judgment wo'd have been enforced, had further process been found necessary. But obedience was yielded to the order of discharge, and no attempt has been made to arrest the prisoner, on the original warrant or on any one similar. We declared the Act of Congress of September 18, 1850, unconstitutional, and our judgment upon that process and the subject matter then before us has been respected and obeyed.

But the judgment of this Court upon the writ of Habeas Corpus was no bar to new and original proceedings on the part of the United States Court. It could not be pleaded in bar, even in similar original proceedings in our own State Courts. If a person, arrested for the violation of an Act of the State Legislature, should be discharged from arrest upon Habeas Corpus, on the ground of the unconstitutionality of such enactment, such discharge could not be pleaded in bar to an indictment subsequently found for the same offense. His discharge is by no means an acquittal. He would still be liable to arrest and trial upon indictment, and, at the proper time or stage of the proceedings, the unconstitutionality of the act could be urged in his defense; and the reasonable and legal presumption would be, that the Court, having the case under cognizance, would properly declare the law.

In this case, when the prisoner was first bro't up on the writ of Habeas Corpus, he was within the State jurisdiction exclusively. It then became our duty to decide upon the validity of the process and of the law, by virtue of which he was held. He was discharged. Thus ended our jurisdiction in the case. But our judgment in that case could not be pleaded in bar to a future indictment found against the prisoner for the same offense.

Subsequently, the prisoner is indicted in the District Court of the United States, and the proper process is issued to bring in the defendant to answer. His defense (among other things) is, that the law, which he is alleged to have violated, is repugnant to the Constitution of the United States. In the former case he was held under the process of an officer who had no power to hear and determine upon the validity of the law, or the allegations of the defendant against its validity. But now he is held under process of a Court, a judicial tribunal, having full power and authority to decide upon all the questions or allegations presented in his behalf. The legal and just presumption is that that Court will declare the law as it is. If the Act of Congress which he is charged with having violated, be repugnant to the Constitution of the United States, we are bound to presume that that Court will so decide. And, certainly, it would indicate a very great want of judicial confidence and integrity, if the State and Federal Courts should attempt to wrest, the one from the other, the jurisdiction of causes, upon the mere suspicion that the one or the other would not decide according to law. Here, no no application to the Court, by virtue of whose process the petitioner is held, has been made for his discharge; no allegation that the proper means of relief had been denied him; no intimation that he has sought relief from that source and been refused it; but we are asked to interfere in this preliminary stage of the proceedings of that Court, before the latter has had any opportunity of applying or construing the law, and to issue a writ, which would, by that very act, indicate an unworthy distrust of a judicial tribunal, instituted in conformity with, and bound by, the same Constitution, which is the paramount law of our own. The counsel for the petitioner could hardly have calculated the disastrous result of such premature proceeding.

It may be said that the Federal Court can acquire no jurisdiction under an unconstitutional law. For the sake of the argment admit the fact to be so. It only amounts to a question of jurisdiction after all; and whenever such question arises in a proceeding in court, shall another court interfere to decide that question before the former has had an opportunity to decide upon its own process and to set itself right upon the matter of its own jurisdiction? Many questions of jurisdiction arise in our own court. Will any one pretend that the parties in such case may go to another tribunal and have that question determined for us? In no case, perhaps, has the question of our jurisdiction been so strenuously contested as in the matter of the former petition of this applicant. Is it supposed that this court would have permitted the petitioner and his cause to have been taken from us by the Federal Court while that matter was pending before us, and to allow that question to be decided for us? and that, even before the subject had been presented to and passed upon by this court? I mention these illustrations in order to show what is due by one judicial tribunal to another.

The matter of jurisdiction is a legitimate question to be raised even collaterally. But no principle of jurisdiction, no precedent can be found, by which one court is authorized to inquire preliminarily into the jurisdiction of another, or to wrest the party or subject matter of a cause from such jurisdiction.

On the first writ the State Judge had jurisdiction, as he thought, and he could not have permitted any person to refuse obedience to his process, on the ground of his want of jurisdiction. No such course was attempted. The question of jurisdiction was raised, it is true, by the attorney for the United States, on the return of the writ, before the officer who issued it. The Federal Court was not applied to, for the purpose of arresting the proceedings before him, and of deciding, before hand, for him, the question of his own jurisdiction. Had such proceedure been attempted, it wo'd have afforded a novel precedent in the judicial proceedings, and, it is needless to say would not have been submitted to, for a moment. Every Court (of the grade of which we are speaking,) is presumed to be competent to hear and determine upon its own jurisdiction and all other Courts are bound to presume that such determination will be according to law. And, altho' other Courts may not in all cases be bound by such decision, yet no Court is authorized by law to take that matter out of the Court whose process has first attached, and assume the right of adjudication, before the former has had an opportunity to hear and determine the matter for itself. Yet this is precisely what we are asked to do in this case.

We have decided that the Fugitive Act of September 18th, 1850, is unconstitutional. But this decision is not binding upon the Courts of another sovereignty, over which we have no control. Whenever that act is brought in question in a proceeding in this Court, or in the judicial tribunals of this State, that judgment will be the rule of the decision, until it is reversed. Believing that to be the law, it would be both illegal and unwise to entertain a suspicion that other Courts independent of this, would be less mindful of the great constitutional guarranties of personal liberty, than we ourselves have been.

For these reasons, as well as those urged by the Chief Justice, I concur in the judgment of the Court denying this application.

These are general principles applicable to all Courts, and binding upon them. But the statute of this State interposes an effectual barrier to our action in this case. The 18th section of chapter 124 of the revised statutes provides that it shall be the duty of the officer forthwith to remand the prisoner, if he is held "by virtue of process issued by any Court or Judge of the United States, in a case where such Court or Judge has exclusive jurisdiction." It wo'd be idle to grant the writ, when it is apparent upon the face of the petition, that our own statute would compel an immediate remanding of the prisoner.

Perhaps it ought to be mentioned here, that there is a very great distinction between commissioners of the United States, and commissioners of our own State. Our constitution expressly provides for such officers, and authorizes the conferring upon them judicial power, which the constitution of the U. States does not do. Whatever may be the ultimate rights of the citizen, it is apparent that this application is premature, and that well established rules of law as well as the positive provisions of our own statute preclude our interference.

REMARKS.

We have neither time nor space, to-day, to review Justice Smith's Opinion, or to give it more than a passing comment. The attempt to reconcile the last opinion with the first one, is a most signal failure. In the first opinion, Mr. Smith stands forth the able man and bold jurist, inspired with the soul of Freedom, applying the great principles of Justice and Fundamental Law which underlie the whole system of Jurisprudence, and are the basis of a free Republican State. In the last opinion, the Judge is transformed to the Advocate, trying to make out a case; he resembles a blind man groping his way out of a labyrinth, and presents himself as a special pleader, evading the real issue, and dodging behind feigned and immaterial ones. Let us examine his points:

1. The first point which the Judge makes, is, that we are imprisoned under an Unconstitutional Act, by a Judge, and not by a U. S. Commissioner. Does that make the illegality of the Act the less flagrant? Can the sign manual of a Judge create law out of a nullity, or fill the empty void of an unconstitutional and dead statute?

2. Should we be discharged we might be again indicted, arrested and committed.

Suppose we might, we could again be discharged on a writ of habeas corpus. Such a contingency furnishes no excuse for a refusal to grant the writ; for if it does, by the Judge's own showing, the writ might always be denied, and thus this Great Charter of Liberty be annulled!

3. We had not applied to Judge Miller for a writ of Habeas Corpus. (J-E-R-U-S-A-L-E-M!!!) It is fair to believe that Judge Miller would grant the writ, decide the Fugitive Act unconstitutional, and release us. "It wo'd indicate an unworthy distrust of him to doubt it"!

Sublime dodge, that! Judicial irony most exquisite, and charity that covers a multitude of sins! And Judge Smith says that, after having just risen from the perusal of Judge Miller's Charge to the Grand Jury, in which he maintains that the Fugitive Act is constitutional, just and humane, that kidnapping is a christian and constitutional duty, and broadly hints that Judge Smith himself ought to be indicted for discharging us from the warrant of Commissioner Smith! "Our counsel could hardly have calculated the disastrous result" of our discharge from imprisonment by the Supreme Court, and not giving Judge Miller a chance to do "that same"; especially as it was by his order that we were imprisoned, and so eager was he to take vengeance on us, that he arbitrarily and unjustly refused to take good and sufficient bail! Merciful man! Considerate jurist! Rich joker! Sublime mockery!

4. Admit the Fugitive Act to be unconstitutional; it is then only a question of jurisdiction, and when a Federal Judge gets hold of our citizens, by virtue of an Act we have declared on our oaths to be unconstitutional and void, he may go to prison or to the devil, and we will not interfere to protect him.

Do you hear this, People of Wisconsin?—Ah! And what, then, becomes of Judge Smith's doctrine of State Sovereignty and State Rights, and the power and duty of State Judges to protect the citizens of Wisconsin? Gone, with the Judge, clean daft! Buried without hope of resurrection! Judicial fustian, not more worthy of remembrance than the stump speech of a broken down politician! And how this would all look by the side of his verbal opinion so grandiloquent on State Rights, which eclipsed, by the brightness of its glory, the opinions of his Associates, on the 19th day of July! We venture to guess that that opinion will never appear in print.

☞ Judge Smith does not meet, nor attempt to meet the question:—How CAN jurisdiction attach under a void law? He evades the whole issue by saying that if the law be void, the only question is, as to priority of jurisdiction, as to who has got hold of us first—whether Miller's warrant to imprison us was served on us before we applied to the Supreme Court for a writ of Habeas Corpus to be discharged from imprisonment under that warrant. We say that is not the question; but the question is—Has a Judge jurisdiction to imprison our citizens under a void law? Practically, Judge Smith says Yes; but he dare not answer so in words, and so he has pettifogged around it, and closes by saying that whatever may be our "ultimate rights," our application is "premature." Premature! It would, according to his reasoning, always be premature, until we had suffered all that the Federal Court could inflict. And as to our "ultimate rights," he defined them thus, in his first opinion:

"Every Citizen has the Right to test every law by the Constitution of the State or National Government according to the forms, and through the appropriate tribunals of the country. Every one has a Right to resist an unconstitutional enactment of the Legislature; but he does so upon his peril, until the conformity or non-conformity of the Act with the Constitution is Judicially determined."

Remember, that Judge Smith denies the power of Congress to make any laws for catching slaves—denies that Congress has any more right to pass the Fugitive Act than we have, or that the Fugitive Act has any more binding force than it would have if any private citizen had written it, and simply attached his name to it, or had put it forth anonymously. And he quibbles about jurisdiction under such an Act, and says if they had granted us the writ, they wo'd have been obliged to remand us, because our statute requires it in all cases where the U. S. Court has exclusive jurisdiction! Exclusive jurisdiction, under an Act that no power in Heaven, Earth or Hell has any rightful authority to pass! Exclusive nonsense, that needs no patent laws to confine it to Justice Smith's exclusive jurisdiction and ownership!

From this judicial quagmire we turn, with a longing for solid ground, to the forthcoming opinion of Chief Justice Whiton, with the hope of finding enough dry ground for a man to rest the sole of his foot upon. For Heaven help the People, if our Supreme Court have nothing better than this to offer them, in defense of the Habeas Corpus denied, the Jury Trial annulled, and Liberty overshadowed by the omnipresence of the Slave Power, and cloven down by the Evil Genius of Kidnapping.

Samuel Lewis.

The good man is gone! he breathed his last, near Cincinnati, on Saturday, the 29th ult.

Falmouth, Mass., was his native place; he was born there, March, 1799. In 1812, his family moved to Ohio, and he came out with them.

Mr. LEWIS had no early advantages; while yet a youth, he carried the mail between Cincinnati and Chillicothe; afterwards he learned the carpenter's business, and worked for years at his trade, until DANIEL GANO, Esq., Clerk of Hamilton county, induced him to enter his office. He wrote here during the day, and studied law at night. He was admitted and practiced in Cincinnati.

How long Mr. LEWIS continued in the profession, we do not know; but we take it, not many years. For he became a local preacher in the Methodist church, and devoted himself to it, or until he resolved to give his time to the cause of Education. To him, Ohio owes much in this regard; SAMUEL LEWIS gave to the State its first great educational impulse, by traveling over it, speaking to the people in almost every county, writing, lecturing, and doing all he could do to place within the reach of every child, the means of instruction and of improvement.

Indeed, in what good cause, and for what good end, has not SAMUEL LEWIS labored? Long before Temperance had an organization, and when the Anti-Slavery cause had few friends, he was first and foremost in defending them, spending his strength and his means for their support. He stood out ever recognizing man as his brother, and working for his elevation with a brother's zeal and energy.

The Cincinnati Gazette, from which we gather several of the facts mentioned above, speaks of the departed as follows:

"Mr. Lewis was emphatically a self made man. Without the extraneous influences of family or education, his energy, zeal and merit, he has won for himself an honorable name and fame among his fellow men. The elements of his character were the heroic. Whatever his hand found to do, he did with his might. He was a philanthropist of the noblest cast. Nothing that concerned his fellow men was beneath his notice. Whatever might be his mistakes and errors, all will admit that he was God's nolest work—an honest man.—Cleveland Leader.

The Southern States, with a quarter of a million less population than the Northern, contain 1385 more churches, and about half as many criminals.—Boston Post.

"Mark how plain a tale shall put you down." On seeing the above monstrous statement of the Post, we took down the U. S. census for 1850, and figured up the column of church statistics to this effect. In the whole number of States and Territores, the result given was:

Whole number of churches in the United States	38,000
In the Territories	94
Leaving in the States	37,906
In the Free States	21,296
In the Slave States	16,610
Balance in favor of Free States	4,686

As to the statistics of crime, we beg leave to remind our brother of the Post, that no man is considered a criminal till adjudged so by a competent tribunal. This may satisfactorily account [when taken in consideration with the Ward and other trials] for the fact of the absence of criminals in the Slave State statistics. We punish our rogues, the South lynches hers. —New Bedford (Mass.) Mercury.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, July 30.—Jefferson Davis and the President's darling measure to secure the ten millions as proposed by Mr. Barksdale, is strongly pressed upon members by the powers that be, but it will signally fail. There will be no appropriation of ten millions for the purpose required by the President. Mark this.

The Union has a lengthy article in favor of the resolution placing ten millions of dollars at the disposal of the President, if necessary, to use in the acquisition of Cuba during the recess of Congress.

The row upon the steamer Ilges has been effectual. Cutting is inexcusable, absurd. Tweed and Walsh openly, and Walker secretly aided the onslaught. Walbridge and Wheeler fought vigorously against the assailants.—N. Y. Trib.

Two hundred and fifty thousand dollars worth of property was destroyed by the recent fire in Jersey City.

THERE is a great scarcity of laborers for harvest work throughout Green County.

WAYSIDE CORRESPONDENCE.

RURAL HOME, July 29, 1854.

A ride to-day to the village of Oberlin, Ohio, was enjoyed very much. The roads are dusty, and everything seems writhing under the baking sun, and drooping for rain. It is evident from the appearance of the crops in the country through which we passed, that unless there is rain soon there will not be an average yield.

Oberlin is considered a great literary village. It has no other attractions. The minds of students do not wander away among groves, along rivers, or to mountain sides, because the village enjoys none of these beauties. It contains some fine blocks, the church sufficiently large to accommodate 3000 persons, Tappan Hall, or the College edifice, named after the builder, and the chapel where the students meet for recitations and lectures. There are many pleasant residences, surrounded with shrubbery and fruit, the most attractive of which is Prof. Phinney's, which, by arrangement in taste, beauty and loveliness, indexes the mind of that gentleman. Oberlin contains about 2000 inhabitants, many of whom are African, and I think it is the design of her society to prove the truthfulness of the proposition, that the African race need only the development of their minds to make them equal in refinement, and as useful members of the Great Brotherhood, as the Americans; and that from them as a class not so much is to be feared by their enjoying their liberty, as by keeping them in unjust restraint.

The number of students now in Oberlin is nearly 900—all very busy, preparing for examination week and commencement. The place affords excellent opportunities to young men or ladies for acquiring an education. The schools are in a very flourishing condition.—There are one or two lazy Professors whose influence over young men who are to go into society at this time, will be anything but healthy. Prof. Phinney, the great Revivalist, is a close student, and like all men who have been great causes in their time, always will be. He is an interesting man in his library—agreeable and entertaining in conversation. His features give evidence of great application, and his eyes light up the whole as the lightning-broken clouds.—He is like the elements, exhaustless in his thunderings, and however great the storm, you per ceive the whirlwind in reserve. Against the many little peculiarities in society which enslave the mind, keeping it away from the Divinity above, he is as crushing as the earthquake. Like all other great men, he sometimes neglects to prepare himself, and makes a great failure, and many who have heard him under such circumstances, esteem him lightly. But he is capable of changing this opinion.

Where are the Milwaukee papers? Among that mass of mail matter piled up in the Chicago office? Are the postmasters willing that the Free Democrat should circulate freely out of the State, at the present time? I have received but one daily Democrat and four Sentinels in three weeks. It takes three days for letters to go from here to Milwaukee.

BROWNE.—In Wauwatosa, on Monday, July 31st, CLARENCE DUANE, only child of Charles E. and Martha E. Browne, aged 22 months and 12 days.

"An angel came down from his emerald bower,
And stole from my bosom my beautiful flower,
And bore it to Heaven.
From that hour, my soul without chart
Wanders weary and lost in its woe;
Sun and Moon have gone down on my heart,
And night broods o'er all things below.
Wherever I fly,
Tongues voiceless, do whisper, "despair thee of rest,
'Till that beautiful flower again on thy breast
In heaven shall lie."

WANTED.—Two copies of the Daily Free Democrat of May 9th. This number is missing from our file, and if any of our subscribers can furnish us with it, they will do us a great favor.

STUDENT WANTED.—Any intelligent and respectable young man, who has a desire to see the world, and to obtain a thorough and efficient knowledge of the practice of Inhalation in diseased throats, lungs, &c., can be accommodated by applying, soon, to Dr. Greenhough at the American House.

Dr. G. will remain here but a day or two more, and consumptive persons who wish to receive the benefit of his services, had better call on him immediately.

A splendid panorama of the Crystal Palace, city of New York with views of New York city, will be exhibited at Young's Hall to-morrow evening. It will be a sight worth witnessing, especially to those who have never had an opportunity of seeing the originals.

CABINET WARE.—Public attention is invited to the card of Messrs. Noyes, Flertzheim & Co., dealers in all kinds of cabinet ware. They manufacture a large quantity of furniture, and always have a large stock on hand. They are building an addition to their store to accommodate their business.

BURGLARIES AT MUKWANAGO.—On Monday night last the shoe shop of Mr. Devitt was robbed of $60 worth of shoes, and the dry goods store of E. P. Sargeant of $150 worth of goods and money, at Mukwanago, Waukesha Co.

On Tuesday night another store was robbed of a large quantity of goods at the same place, and the thief was subsequently detected at Waukesha by Sheriff Ellis and committed to jail. He gave his name as Chas. Schwartz, and belongs in this city. He cabbaged 140 lbs. of goods which he conveyed to Waukesha, a distance of 14 miles, on a wheelbarrow.

HARVESTING.—Scarcity of Laborers.—We learn from a friend who has just returned from a tour through the southern section of Jefferson Co., that the grain in that region is wasting badly in consequence of not being harvested in season—that it is utterly impossible for farmers to obtain sufficient help to secure their crops though extravagant wages are offered, and that in some instances, farmers offered half of their wheat to any one who would harvest it.

ANOTHER NEW STORE.—Sexton Bro's. have purchased the lot adjoining Nazro & Co's new store on the south, for $5,000, on which they will immediately commence the erection of a splendid store for their own use. The lot is 20 feet fronting on East Water Street, and runs back to the river.

Capt. Larsen of the sloop Ole Bull, was so severely affected by sun stroke on Tuesday last, while passing along the street between the Menomonee Foundery and the Menomonee Bridge, that it was two days before he fully recovered.

The following communication is from an old fashioned Democrat of the Jefferson stamp, who has been several times a member of the Legislature, and has held prominent offices in the State. We publish it as the best specimen of a large number of communications of a similar character, which we have received, representing a very large class who have a right to be heard. It is but just to say, in apology for Gerrit Smith, that he is an invalid, whose life depends on regularity of habits:

FRIEND BOOTH:—I have been waiting, until I cant stand it any longer, for some good excuse or apology for the conduct of our Supreme Court, in not granting the writ of Habeas Corpus. In the name of all that is good—if there is anything that can be said, that will mitigate in the least, their conduct, say it quick; for not only myself, but the whole community is anxious to learn more of this matter.

No man in this State ever made such an awful leap into the affections of the people, as did Judge SMITH, by his first decision. In this section the approbation was universal. The people at once placed him on a long pole with a full determination to carry him triumphantly over the heads of all the miserable and contemptible bread-and-butter tools of the meanest of all cattle, Frank Pierce. How are the mighty fallen!

For the present, at least, the people have taken down Judge Smith, and laid him on the ground, with a dark covering over him. He is now ready for a political burial, unless something comes up to relieve the case from its present appearances, and they will write over his remains—

Here lies Judge Smith—we loved him once,
We thought he was so spunky;
But he could not stand the Hunker frowns,
And died a miserable flunkey.

That is not very nice poetry, but you know the laboring class is not used to fine rhetorical flourishes, as the Southerners say about Sumner: but there is common sense in it, and that is all they care for.

Now perhaps this is all wrong, and that we are judging too soon. I assure you, if the Judge or Judges can show that the last decision was in keeping with the spirit and letter of the first, we will stick the Judge right up on the pole again.

You see I am all wormwood and gall. I have lost all confidence in mankind. When I look about me and see how quietly the Northern people sit under the yoke that their Southern masters have placed on their necks, I must say that I am discouraged. It is true, there is a little trouble and kicking in putting on the yoke, but they soon become submissive, after it is once on.

The Southerners have taken the measure of the Northern people most beautifully correct on all these subjects. The signs look a little favorable at present, but I am looking for the appearance of old General Apathy. He will soon put down all this uneasiness among the people.

When we see such men as Gerrit Smith (and some other Smiths) cave in, we may well ask the question that Washington did when Arnold caved—Who shall we trust? I have just been reading Gerrit Smith's defense as regards his course in Congress, and what a defense for such a man! As Gerrit is somewhat in the habit of quoting scripture, I would like to have him examine the 26th chapter of St. Matthew. He will there find a case in point. He will find that certain persons were required to Watch, while our Savior went forward to Pray. I wo'd like particularly to have him notice that withering rebuke—"What, could yo not watch with me one hour?" But how stupid those Apostles must have been, when compared with Gerrit. Why could they not have said to Christ—"You know it is our custom to go to bed early, and if you had wanted followers who would Watch while you Pray, you should have chosen men for that purpose. You cant expect us to change our country habits, even to save you from the cross."

Poor Gerrit Smith! His constituents can well say to him—Sleep on, Gerritt, and take your rest—behold Liberty is betrayed into the hands of Oppressors! I am glad he is sensible enough to resign.

In conclusion, I will say again, if you know of anything that will relieve those Judges from the peculiar situation in which they are now placed before the people, I wish you would state it immediately. As it appears to us here at present, Crawford's position is infinitely above that of the other Judges; from the fact that he has never tried to be anything but a Doughface.

After all, I don't entirely despair. I think after the people have been skinned a few more times by the State and General Governments, they will get waked up to a sense of their duty.

You may as well give it up Booth, and let them try you. Our Southern masters demand it, and their Northern tools want bread and butter. If they can't get a chance to try you here, they will kidnap you and take you to some Southern State, where they can walk into your blood, with none to molest or make afraid. The people would bluster around for a while, and talk about State Rights, but when they see that it was likely to cost some exertion, they would finally cave in. Perhaps I am wrong in this, but that is my opinion, and that is the Southern idea of the matter.

Serious Accident.—Wm. McCromick, Esq., of this place, was dangerously injured yesterday, while hunting in the vicinity of Lodi, by the accidental discharge of his gun. Several gentlemen were with him in a buggy. He was sitting on the back seat, his gun being in the forward part of the vehicle. Seeing a bird by the side of the way, he reached over and took hold of his gun near the muzzle, and, in drawing it over the forward seat, the trigger caught against something, and he received the contents of the gun in his right shoulder. A surgeon was procured as speedily as possible, and his wounds dressed. It is feared that it may terminate fatally, and but little hope is entertained of his ever regaining the use of his right arm should he recover.—Mineral Pt. Tribune.

Money Stolen.—On Friday night last, some heartless wretches stole $40 in money from the desk of George McKim. The robbery was effected while George was absent from his room for a bucket of water, the key having been left in the desk, and the outer door open. We wo'd again advise our citizens to be on the look out for these light fingered scamps. Their depredations are becoming quite too frequent in Mineral Point.—Mineral Point Trib.

Struck by Lightning.—The Steam Grist Mill in this village was struck by lightning during the great storm, tearing off a portion of the roof and battlement of the building.

Also the flying horse apparatus standing near the Court House. The fluid struck the top of the upright shaft shivering it some two feet and then passed down the connecting rods splintering the arms.—Monroe (Green Co.) Sent.

The æronauts who went up at Hartford on the Fourth, say that as they reached a great height over the river the water became perfectly pellucid, and they could see any object in it even to the bottom, as distinctly as they could through clear water in a glass.

It is feared that the severe rains which have fallen within a few day will ruin a great quantity of wheat, it is impossible to get it dry enough to stack, and considerable has commenced sprouting.—Monroe (Green Co.,) Sentinel.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

Explosion of a Powder Mill.

PHILADELPHIA, July 30.—At Wilmington, at 7 o'clock last evening, one of Garnesche's powder mills, a mile and a half from town, exploded, killing James Lynch, the watchman, and injuring Dennis Cannon, the engineer.—There were three heavy explosions, which shook the city much. The mill is totally destroyed. The property about the mill was not much damaged.

Canada.—The returns show a decisive majority in favor of the opposition. The members stand, so far, 32 Opposition, 13 Ministerialists, and 1 doubtful. The Hamilton Spectator believes that Hincks has been defeated in Renfrew. Hon. Malcolm Cameron is also defeated in Lambton, though he has a feeble chance of being returned for Lanark. Christie is also defeated. Toronto returns two Ministerialists.—Buffalo Express.

THE SABBATH DAY.—On the first Sabbath after the 4th of July the law passed by the Legislature of New Jersey, at its recent session, for the more sacred observance of the Lord's Day, went into operation. This law forbids all travel of frights trains on railroads, freight boats on canal, and all droves of cattle, hogs, and sheep, on the Sabbath. And it's made the special duty of all justices of the peace to stop such travel, and by warrant to arrest and fine all transgressors.

THE American lady, Mrs. Putnam, has, perhaps, no equal in the world, for a critical knowledge of languages, for she converses readily in French, Italian, German, Polish, Swedish, and Hungarian, and is familiar with twenty modern dialects, besides Greek, Latin, Hebrew, Persian and Arabic. This extent of linguistical acquirements is paralleled only by Cardinal Mezzofan, Elihu Burrut, and some half dozen other great names of both worlds.

Holloway's Pills.—Among all the idle medicaments of the day, the names of which fill the common ear to nausea, we would not include Holloway's Pills, celebrated both here and in Europe, for their wonderful curative properties. A sound discrimination has taught us that their reputation is not ephemeral, but a solid, substantial one, based upon a long and useful existence among the intelligent, the refined, and the discerning. They are to be met with in every portion of the civilized globe, and in every spot their virtues are alluded to with grateful enthusiasm, that well endorses their capacity and virtues. They are not merely designed for a special complaint, but are depuratives, and cure by removing from the system elements of disease, thus operating in an extraordinary manner in most all disorders to which human nature is subject.—New York True National Democrat.

INHALATION.
A Cure for Asthma, Bronchitis, Consumption, and all Diseases of the Throat, Lungs, Heart and Liver.
DR. THOMAS H. GREENOUGH, late of London, England, resident Physician of New Orleans, for the above specialties, respectfully informs the citizens of Milwaukee that he will remain a few days at the AMERICAN HOUSE, to afford those of the afflicted who may desire it, an opportunity of availing themselves of Inhalation, the only reliable process of cure.
The consideration of the connection between Mind and Body, and the influence of Nature's Laws upon the constitution of Man, constitutes a very essential part of Dr. Greenough's practice, and governs him in the administration of remedies, which are numerous and varied, to suit the peculiar condition of each case.
His Plan of Laving (a hygiene sheet) embraces not only the kind of Food and Drink, but the kind of Bath, Exercise, Dress, &c., most congenial to the organism of the patient.
After Dr. Greenough's departure, Dr. Hoys McKinley, resident Physician of Kenosha, will attend to those who may place themselves under the care of Dr. G., who will shortly return to New Orleans to resume his practice.

A CHALLENGE IN THE SUM OF $1000!
TO ALL SAFE-MAKERS IN THE UNITED STATES, who do not make or infringe upon HERRING'S or WILDER'S Patent Rights, which I have enjoyed and furnished to the public with all the improvements since they were first patented:
The result of several former trials, when fairly tested with other Safes and the numerous accidental fires which have brought them in contact with other Safes, has deservedly placed the Safes manufactured by me, far ahead of all similar protectors.
In order that the public may have a further opportunity of judging whether their verdict as rendered in favor of MY SAFES has been a correct one, I propose another fair trial upon the following conditions:
First—A committee of respectable citizens to be selected (as may hereafter be agreed upon) to conduct the trial.
Second—Each party accepting and entering upon terms in writing, to furnish said committee with a given number of names of parties who have purchased their Safes and now have them in use.
Third—The committee to select one of each maker's, of corresponding size, so that the maker cannot be allowed to manufacture one expressly for a furnace or blow-pipe heat, as much suspicion has always attached itself to all premeditated tests of Safes.
The public are not interested to know who CAN make a Safe to stand a blast furnace or blow-pipe heat the longest. But it is of vast importance to the whole commercial world to know who furnishes those which prove the best in a natural, accidental fire, such as one would be subject to in the burning of a store, house, factory or other building.
Fourth—The committee to conduct the fire, and render the report in writing for publication.

THE AMERICAN'S FRIEND!
HOLLOWAY'S PILLS!
TO THE CITIZENS OF THE UNITED STATES—
I most humbly and sincerely thank you for the immense patronage which you have bestowed upon my Pills. I take the opportunity of stating that my Ancestors were all American Citizens, and that I entertain for all that concerns America and the Americans, the most lively sympathies, so much so that I originally compounded these Pills expressly to suit your climate, habits, constitutions, and manner of living, intending to establish myself among you, which I have now done, by taking premises in New York. THOMAS HOLLOWAY,
38, corner of Ann and Nassau Streets, N. Y.
PURIFICATION OF THE BLOOD AND LIVER AND BILIOUS COMPLAINTS.
The citizens of the Union suffer much from disorders of the Liver and Stomach. Scarcely any are free from the influence of these destructive maladies. Hence life wears fast. The fair sex, perhaps the most handsome in the world, up to a certain period, when, distressing to say, many lose their teeth and good looks while yet in the heyday of life. Such sad evils may be effectually remedied by continually keeping the blood pure and the Liver and Stomach in a healthy action, when life will flow smoothly, and resemble plants in a congenial clime, where an eternal spring appears to reign. As it regards the preservation of the human frame, and the duration of life, much may be effected, and I say fearlessly, that health and life can be prolonged for many years beyond their ordinary limits, if Holloway's Pills are taken to purify the blood according to the rules laid down for health contained in the directions which accompany each box.
A CASE OF WEAKNESS AND DEBILITY OF TEN YEARS STANDING, CURED BY HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.
Copy of a Letter from Capt. John Johnson, Astor House, New York, dated Jan. 5th, 1854.
To PROFESSOR HOLLOWAY, 38, corner of Ann and Nassau streets, New York—
SIR: It is with the most heartfelt pleasure I have to inform you that I have been restored to health and strength by taking your Pills. For the last ten years, I suffered from a derangement of the Liver and Stomach, and was reduced to such an extremity that I gave up my Ship, never expecting to go to sea any more, as I had tried every remedy that was recommended to me, but all to no purpose; and had given myself up to despair, when I was at last recommended to take your Pills. After using them for three months, the result is that I am now in better health than I have been for eleven years past, and indeed as well as ever I was in my life. You are at liberty to make this known for the benefit of others.
I remain, Sir, yours respectfully,
(Signed) JOHN JOHNSON.
These celebrated Pills are wonderfully efficacious in the following complaints:

Ague, Asthma,	Liver complaints,
Bilious complaints,	Retention of Urine,
Blotches on the Skin,	Scrofula, or King's Evil,
Bowel complaints,	Stone and Gravel,
Constipation of the Bowels,	Secondary Symptoms,
Debility, Dropsy,	Venereal affections,
Erysipelas,	Worms of all kinds,
Female Irregularities,	Weakness, from whatever cause,
Fevers of all kinds,
Headache, Indigestion,	Jaundice, Gout, Piles.

☞ Sold at the establishment of Prof. HOLLOWAY, 38, corner of Ann and Nassau streets, New York. Also, by all respectable Druggists and Dealers in Medicines thro'out the United States, in boxes, at 37½ cts., 87 cts., and $1.50 each. To be had wholesale of the principal Drug Houses in the Union.
There is a considerable saving by taking the larger sizes.
N. B.—Directions for the guidance of patients in every disorder are affixed to each box.

From the National Era.

The Kansas Emigrants.

We cross the prairie, as of old
The Pilgrims crossed the sea,
To make the West, as they the East,
The homestead of the free!

We go to rear a wall of men
On Freedom's southern line,
And plant beside the cotton tree
The rugged Northern pine!

We're flowing from our native hills,
As our free rivers flow;
The blessing of our mother-land
Is on us as we go.

We go to plant her common schools
On distant prairie swells,
And give the Sabbaths of the wild
The music of her bells.

Upbearing, like the Ark of old,
The Bible in our van,
We go to test the truth of God
Against the fraud of man.

No pause, nor rest, save where the streams
That feed the Kansas run,
Save where our Pilgrim gonfalon
Shall flout the setting sun!

We'll sweep the prairie as of old
Our fathers swept the sea,
And make the West, as they the East,
The homestead of the free!

HAVE commenced the SPRING CAMPAIGN in good earnest. They have on hand by very recent arrivals a LARGE, FULL and COMPLETE STOCK of

SEASONABLE GOODS,

Which, by good management, good luck, &c., they have obtained greatly ahead of their neighbors, and as none of their purchases were made until after the depreciation in prices in the Eastern Markets, their advantage in comparison with those who purchased Goods in March and April, will be some 10 or 15 per cent, all of which the purchaser shall have the advantage of, as our prices will be correspondingly low.

An enumeration of articles is deemed unnecessary. We name only a few of the prominent:

Calicoes from 6¼ to 12½cts,	Black and colored Silks,
Ginghams 6¼ to 25cts,	Chameleon Silks,
Printed and plain Lawns,	Plaid and striped Silks,
Chally, Barege,	Parasols and Umbrellas,
Barege DeLaines,	Gloves and Hosiery,
Mouselin Delaines,	Lace Veils and Mitts,
Printed Bareges,	Fans, Ribands and Laces
Plain and Barr'd Swiss,	Fringes and Gimps,
Plain and check Cambrics,	Velvet Trimmings,
Worked Collars and Capes,	Barege Veils and Mitts,
Victoria Lawns,	Linen & Cambric Hdk's.

N. B.—Our brown and bleached Sheetings and Shirtings, Bedticks, Denims, cotton Flannels, Plaids, Stripes, Jeans, Mariner's Shirtings, &c., &c., were purchased of the Eastern manufacturers FOR CASH, thereby avoiding the Jobbers' profits.

☞ Our Teas, Coffees, Sugars, Pork, Fish, Flour, Tobacco, Segars, &c., have been selected by our Mr. GRIDLEY, with regard to suiting our numerous customers, all of which we warrant to be of the BEST QUALITY.

We are Agents for the sale of Minor & Horton's Celebrated Plows, from Peekskill, N. Y., of which we have always a full assortment on hand, together with extra castings to match, at wholesale or retail.

Our business will, as formerly, be conducted on the ONE LOW PRICE CASH SYSTEM, SMALL PROFITS, AND QUICK RETURNS, which all will allow advantages both the buyer and seller. In a word, we intend to offer to our patrons and the public great inducements in the way of bargains, and invite all to partake.
